

CELEBRATING YOU!

REPORT OF GRATITUDE 2012

Catholic Charities CYO
San Francisco, San Mateo & Marin

Catholic Charities CYO is CELEBRATING YOU!

In our 2012 Report of Gratitude, Catholic Charities CYO is delighted to share the stories and reflections of a handful of cherished friends. We hope you will join them in these pages to savor a moment or two of celebration.

Each and every day at Catholic Charities CYO, we witness and celebrate small but precious moments of joy. Every time a woman has a breakthrough or a child learns to share, we think of you, our supporters. Each year, we see lives that have been touched and transformed. Families are healed. Children are given new hope. People gain the strength to rebuild their lives. Men and women regain their sense of dignity and self-worth. These magical moments are possible because of you.

Thank you for your support this year. Please take a moment to celebrate all that you do.

ENJOY!

Dear Friends in Christ,

As I reflect on these last seven years of my tenure as Archbishop, I am immensely proud of the outreach of Catholic Charities CYO, which touches the lives of thousands of people in need from San Francisco, Marin and San Mateo Counties. Doing everything from caring for people with HIV to running elderly day care centers to providing support for at-risk youth and families, Catholic Charities CYO has become a shining beacon within the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

It has been a joy to develop such cherished relationships with Catholic Charities CYO's supporters and volunteers. You have all given so generously of yourselves and for that I thank you. Because of your kindness, this agency is able to accomplish wonderful things.

We have been able to create and sustain communities of caring that support families and care for kids through our services on Treasure Island and in the new community at 10th and Mission Streets. Families that are in crisis or have become homeless receive a combination of services from employment and housing assistance to counseling and educational support, while their children participate in enriching out-of-school activities that are changing lives and breaking cycles of poverty.

It is also extremely gratifying to see the strides we have made in our HIV/AIDS ministries. The impact on the lives of those suffering from this disease is astounding and for that we should all be proud. Our Housing and Health Stabilization Services remain a major link in the HIV continuum of care by providing housing, counseling and ongoing support.

This summer, President Obama announced a halt to deportations of children who entered the United States without proper documentation. In response, Catholic Charities CYO's Refugee and Immigrant Services staff has taken the lead in assisting eligible youth pursue deferred action that allows them to live and work legally. More than 200 young immigrants have already attended Catholic Charities CYO's weekly information and counseling sessions to learn how to gather documentation, prepare for application and permit filing, and protect themselves from fraudulent parties.

On October 4, we welcome the Ninth Archbishop of San Francisco Salvatore Cordileone. I am confident that he will sustain and foster the long tradition we have of strengthening families, building community and reducing poverty.

Please know of my gratitude also to our Board of Directors, Board President Deborah Dasovich, Jeff Bialik, Executive Director, the staff and volunteers, and all those who so creatively and faithfully carry out our mission of service to our brothers and sisters.

May God bless you and keep you in His loving care as we serve those most in need.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend George Niederauer
Archbishop of San Francisco

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities CYO,

In this year's Gratitude Report, we share stories of our clients, volunteers and supporters who each have their personal reasons for supporting Catholic Charities CYO. And just as we celebrate them, we are also celebrating you. Whether you give $10 a month, volunteer a few hours a week, attend a fundraising event, or give a major gift to one of our programs, friends like you mean the world to us!

And it's important for the children, adults and families we help to know that they have people like you on their side – people who don't even know them, but who care about their safety and wellbeing. It is this support that keeps their spirits high and helps them take the courageous steps towards healthier lives.

As we held our 15th Annual Vincenzo Wine Tasting & Auction to benefit Services for At-Risk Youth, guests were inspired by a story from Paul, a young man from St. Vincent's School for Boys who learned how to connect with others and form emotional bonds through the program. I would like to thank founding chairman Jeff Fenton and co-chair Heather Rodriguez, as well as honorary chairs Pat and Joe Harbison of Harbison Estate Wines, for their stellar leadership of this grand affair.

In April at our Annual Loaves and Fishes Gala, we were able to honor and thank outgoing Archbishop George Niederauer who has served as Chairman of our Board for the past seven years. Archbishop Niederauer has worked tirelessly to build bridges among our diverse local communities. His compassionate work has touched the lives of so many people, not only among the Catholic population, but throughout the entire Bay Area. As a passionate advocate for the poor and those in need, he has truly embodied the spirit of St. Francis, the patron saint of San Francisco.

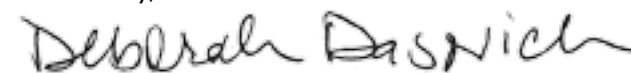

Catholic Charities CYO Golf Day continued its reign as the longest-running charitable golf tournament in the Bay Area, celebrating fellowship, sport and philanthropy in May. In our 53rd year hosting the event, with the help of honorary chair and former SF 49er Ronnie Lott, we exceeded our fundraising goal to benefit Summer Youth Programs at CYO Camp and CYO Athletics. We extend a huge debt of gratitude to Jim McCabe and his fellow committee members for their leadership of this important fundraising event.

This fiscal year, we welcomed new Board of Directors members Reverend Paul Arnoult, Gregory Bullian and Steven Kane. We appreciate their dedication and enthusiasm as well as the valuable knowledge and assistance they bring to our mission.

We have also bid fond farewells to three Board members -- William Ring, Dr. Luis Calingo and Rev. Charles Gagan, S.J. -- who have each given so much to our organization and to this community.

Through your support, we know you understand the importance and impact of our work. We encourage you to share this information with your friends and colleagues who may be interested in joining with us. On behalf of the Board of Directors at Catholic Charities CYO, thank you for all you do to bring help and hope to those we serve and for being such a treasured friend!

Sincerely,

Deborah Dasovich
President, Board of Directors

Dear Friends,

In this, our Report of Gratitude for 2012, we are delighted to celebrate the Catholic Charities CYO family and to share with you how much of a difference your support is making to those we serve. Together, we have made significant strides in breaking the cycle of poverty and assisting individuals and families as they reach self-sufficiency and beyond.

As we reflect on the past 12 months, four program highlights come to mind. In a unique partnership model, Catholic Charities CYO joined with Lynne and Marc Benioff, the Salesforce.com Foundation, Star of the Sea Parish and the Archdiocese of San Francisco, to offer a beacon of hope for homeless mothers and their children through our new Star Community Home. Since its opening, the temporary residence has already provided a safe, welcoming home to more than 24 families, of which 11 transitioned into permanent housing.

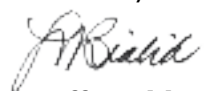

This year, St. Vincent's School for Boys began a new treatment model as part of a statewide pilot program. The Family Connections Program strives to bring the care and attention that boys receive at St. Vincent's into the communities where they live. Boys spend a limited amount of time living at St. Vincent's where they receive intensive behavioral and educational therapy. Case managers help them learn the social skills they will need to thrive after their brief stay. Then, working with their families, the St. Vincent's support staff creates and manages a care plan that allows the boys and their families to heal together. So far, six boys have participated in this new model of care that we hope to help other organizations implement throughout California.

Catholic Charities CYO continues to be a crucial provider in the continuum of care for those afflicted by HIV/AIDS. Our Housing and Health Stabilization Services have earned the highest evaluations possible from San Francisco's Department of Public Health. Six of our programs received perfect scores of 4 out of 4, exceeding all requirements. We are proud that we have been able to contribute to improving the outlook for those struggling with this disease.

We have been able to help more families avoid homelessness in San Francisco than ever before over the past year with case management and housing stabilization services, back rent assistance, security deposits, utility assistance and rental subsidies. The people we've been able to assist through your private philanthropic support have often slipped through the safety net. Thanks to you, these families are stably housed and rebuilding their lives.

Large or small, your gifts of time and treasure have all contributed to improving our community. With your support, Catholic Charities CYO has been able to continue to step in with a helping hand and offer a pathway to a better future. I thank you for your continued partnership.

Sincerely and with gratitude,

Jeff Bialik,
Executive Director

Canal Family Support.

Communities coming together.

On May 2, Canal Family Support's Kids Club 4th and 5th graders attended the first Kids Club College Day. Using laptops donated by St. Hillary's School as part of their Get Some/Give Some giving program, the kids competed in an online "scavenger hunt" to learn more about area high schools and colleges. Later in the day, they participated in a lively question and answer session with former Kids Club participants now in high school and college.

Refugee & Immigrant Services.

Creating citizens.

In the past year, Refugee & Immigrant Services helped 624 people achieve legal status and become fully active participants in the economic, social and civic life of our communities. 48 people who held U-Visas as victims of criminal activity received permanent residence. Also, the program helped 26 people who were green card holders become US citizens. Of those that became citizens, seven came to us for the initial legal right to work and were assisted in their green card applications, and then with obtaining their citizenship.

St. Vincent's Foster Family Agency.

Amazing kids. Amazing foster families.

"We have some amazing kids and we're very lucky to have some amazing foster families that support them," says Megan Chesnut, Director of St. Vincent's Foster Family Agency. "Last year, all six of our senior boys graduated from high school and are going on to college in the fall. These kids have come so far and, thanks to the commitment and care of their case workers and foster families, they can now go even farther."

Star Community Home.

New homes and new hope.

Just after the New Year, 12 mothers and their kids started a new life at a new facility - the Star Community Home. The Salesforce.com Foundation is providing the funding for the project that over the course of 18 months will move as many mothers and children out of homelessness as possible. Salesforce.com employees helped convert a shuttered convent at Star of the Sea parish into a refuge of hope. So far, 24 families have come to Star Community Home and 11 have since moved into homes of their own.

San Carlos Adult Day Services.

Care for the caregiver.

“It’s easy to feel isolated and alone when you’re caring for a senior family member, especially when dealing with dementia,” says Nancy Keegan, the Senior Program Director at San Carlos Adult Day Services. “In addition to the care provided at the center, it’s important to get out in the community to share resources and let people know what is available. Our workshops give caregivers extra tools to help their loved ones and stay healthy themselves. In the past year, over 300 people have attended our workshops held at community locations throughout San Mateo County, our support groups or information sessions.”

Homelessness Prevention Programs.

Stability for families in crisis.

In the course of the past year, Catholic Charities CYO's Homelessness Prevention Programs helped 627 families avert eviction by providing direct rental assistance to people in need. In addition, in working with non-profit service providers, CCCYO assisted an additional 355 San Francisco families maintain stable housing. That means that nearly 1,000 families could continue to work, go to school, heal from injury or recover from a family loss knowing that they had a home that is safe and secure.
