

Catholic Charities 10th and Mission Family Housing & Edith Witt Senior Community

About

Located in San Francisco's lower Mission residential neighborhood, Catholic Charities 10th & Mission Family Housing and Edith Witt Community nourish and support a strong community where seniors and families thrive.

Families residing at 10th & Mission have access to a powerful combination of affordable housing, case management, and family support services ala single site; while seniors living next door at Edith Witt receive residential and financial services that help them age in place in a safe, secure environment. The programs foster stability and are models for how integrated, concentrated resources can change lives and break the cycles of poverty.

Services

- Case management and housing stability support
- Information, resources, and referrals to community services
- Landlord liaison services
- Weekly on-site food pantry
- Intergenerational community building activities and workshops for resident families and seniors

2025 Impact Stats

505

clients served (aged 4-104) including 45 children and 70 TAY youth & 184 seniors

567

hours of case management provided

1,126

bags of groceries provided to clients

577

hot meals provided for holiday celebrations and group events

92%

of clients surveyed reported feeling supported by staff in moving toward independence

98%

of clients surveyed reported never being hungry

87%

of clients surveyed reported that their quality of life has improved as a result of the program

96%

of clients surveyed reported having existing social support systems or are working to build social support systems