

Catholic Charities Long Term Subsidy Program

About

Through the San Francisco Mayor's Office of Housing and Community Development and the Department of Disability and Aging Services, Catholic Charities operates the Long-Term Subsidies program.

This program offers direct assistance to seniors and adults with disabilities to retain their housing through a long-term shallow subsidy designed to help clients achieve housing stability and prevent homelessness or re-entry into homelessness.

Services

- Rental Subsidy
- Budgeting and Money Management
- Case Management
- Information and Referral
- Landlord Mediation
- Move-in-Costs
- Back Rent

2025 Impact Stats

472

clients served

1,941

hours of case management provided

$3,123,371

in direct assistance distributed to clients

- $3,084,652 in rental assistance
- $38,719 in basic needs assistance

Rent burden decreased by:

- at least 30% for 114 households
- over 50% for 358 households