

Catholic Charities St. Joseph's Family Center

About

Catholic Charities St. Joseph's Family Center is dedicated to improving the lives of families in the midst of personal struggles. St. Joseph's Family Center is an emergency housing facility in San Francisco offering family shelter to city residents. Our staff works with clients through the transition from homelessness into long-term or supportive housing.

Through St. Joseph's Family Center programs, families receive three to six months emergency assistance from staff while families are assessed and referred to housing options. In addition, St. Joseph's Family Center offers money management and job search support, parenting workshops, and activity programs geared to assist families in maintaining healthy relationships.

Services

- Emergency shelter and three meals a day for 10 families
- On-site case management, counseling, and crisis intervention
- Housing referrals
- Marriage and family therapy assessments and referrals
- Children's individualized assessments and referrals
- Money management and job search support
- Biweekly house meetings
- Children's activity programs
- Parenting and interpersonal skills workshops

2025 Impact Stats

78

clients served including 40 children and 25 families

518

hours of case management provided

65%

of families leaving the program obtained permanent housing

102

days is the average length of stay

86%

of children were enrolled in and attending school regularly upon leaving the program

93%

of households had at least one family member employed upon leaving the program

100%

of clients surveyed reported no longer needing services or receiving a range of services to meet their needs upon leaving the program