Dear Cabin Leader:

Thank you for your interest in the Cabin Leader position at Caritas Creek at CCCYO Camp! The Cabin Leader position is an integral part of our program, and your help during this program week will be very important. In accordance with the policies set by the Archdiocese of San Francisco, CCCYO Camp requires one adult cabin leader per cabin (one adult per up to eleven students). We rely on our volunteer Cabin Leaders to mentor and care for the students that will come with their classes to attend Caritas Creek at CCCYO Camp.

Serving as a Cabin Leader is an exciting challenge. It is an opportunity to view new approaches to education, a chance to go on exploration hikes, sleep in a cabin, dine in our main lodge with campers, learn group dynamics, and ultimately, to be responsible for the empowerment and growth of students. It is important to think of this program as an educational experience for cabin leaders as well as students! Cabin Leaders are expected to stay on site during the entire program week. This packet has been created to help you learn more about our program and to provide you with the tools necessary to become a member of our team.

Enclosed you will find the following:

- Caritas Creek at CCCYO Camp Program Description
- Cabin Leader Responsibilities/Tools
- Cabin Leader Expectations
- CCCYO Camp Standards for Cabin Leaders
- Suggested Packing List
- Adult Health Form

We thank you for volunteering your time and effort for these students. We look forward to working, learning, and growing with you during this adventurous experience!

Please give us a call at (707) 874-0226 if you have any questions or concerns about your role as a Cabin Leader.

Sincerely,
The Leadership Staff of CCCYO Camp

Caritas Creek at CCCYO Camp Program Description

Caritas Creek at CCCYO Camp Environmental Education is a program which has evolved over the course of 50 years to help serve communities of many backgrounds and demographics across California. It integrates themes and lessons from diverse sources of knowledge and wisdom, and the Caritas experience both begins and ends in the classroom, where students need it most. A Site Director will conduct a virtual retreat with the class, working directly with students to prepare for their week at camp. This Teacher Information Packet covers practical issues, while a separate Parent Information Packet includes documents such as a letter to parents, packing list, medical form, and clothing order form. The CCCYO Camp video contains helpful information about the program and a general overview of camp. Through these resources, teachers and parents will better understand the students' experience at camp. A Parent preview by the Site Director is also available upon request. Please contact your Site Director to schedule all presentations.

Students spend five days at CCCYO Camp and Retreat Center in Occidental, California. During the week, they are exposed to a series of themes, hikes, activities, and lessons designed to promote learning, awareness, and character development on multiple levels: personal, social, environmental, and spiritual. The week includes five primary hikes, including a night hike, that add up to over 17 hours on-trail. We use a tested curriculum that is paired with the Next Generation Science Standards designed by B.E.E.T.L.E.S. (Better Environmental Education Teaching, Learning, and Expertise Sharing), a program of the Lawrence Hall of Science, UC Berkeley. There are also small group discussions (Serendipities), moral development activities, camp electives (canoeing, archery, etc.), classroom meetings, and a closing Celebration activity which ties together all of the different themes learned over the week.

Dedicated Teacher Naturalists lead Exploration groups of 12-14 students in a variety of activities to develop strong group cohesion and develop positive character traits in individual students. At CCCYO Camp, we create a welcoming atmosphere of acceptance, love, and respect where every camper feels appreciated for their identity. Students return to their schools and communities with a greater sense of respect for one another, along with a feeling of empowerment within both themselves as well as their community. They take responsibility for the effect they have on one another and their environment and make choices that reinforce a positive environment.

Cabin Leader Responsibilities:

- To make certain that each student's personal needs are properly met.
- To supervise students in the cabins at night.
- To see that students are dressed appropriately for varying weather conditions.
- To make certain that students get to each activity on time and prepared.
- To attend daily meetings with staff and teachers.
- To help with support and discipline during classes and activities.
- To promote faith, caring, honesty, respect and responsibility in all aspects of our program.
- Cabin leaders are required to report all incidents, medical or behavioral, to both the classroom teacher and a CCCYO Camp Staff member.

DAILY RESPONSIBILITIES OF A CABIN LEADER

During a day at CCCYO Camp there are several areas of programming that are reliant on the support of Cabin Leaders. We want to make you aware of these in advance and provide you with the appropriate information/tools so that you can support the program to the best of your ability. All Cabin Leaders will be provided with a schedule and resource guide upon arrival at camp. The Cabin Leader team will meet daily to check-in (share experiences), to review the schedule of the day, and to receive any support needed from the Cabin Leader Coordinator. The Leadership Team here at CCCYO Camp is dedicated to providing our Cabin Leaders with the resources and support necessary to make sure that our students have a positive experience.

Morning/Wake-Up Routine

Cabin groups are not to get up/make noise before 7AM. Please emphasize that campers must follow this rule and respect everyone's need to get adequate sleep/rest. Here is a list of what they can do if they wake up early:

1. Go back to sleep - They may get up to use the restroom quietly but must return to bed afterward! The Buddy system is still in place at this time.
2. Do a solo activity silently - Journal, draw, read a book, make friendship bracelets, etc.
3. Talk quietly with each other - As long as noise is below a reasonable volume, any students who may be awake before 7AM can still talk and interact as long as they respect everyone else who is still sleeping.

It is the Cabin Leaders responsibility to ensure that the students are taking care of personal hygiene and preparing themselves for the day. Students must be in appropriate clothing for a variety of adventures depending on the day. Once the students have completed their morning routine, the whole cabin group is to walk down to the lodge together on time for breakfast.

Cabin Clean Up

Each cabin group is responsible for keeping their cabin neat and tidy. Here are different tasks that should be done throughout the week:

1. Sweep floor
2. Beds made and clothes picked up
3. Empty wastebaskets before leaving camp (into large garbage cans located outside your cabin)
4. Trash both inside and outside of the cabin picked up
5. Heater and lights off when not in cabin (during hikes and at the end of the week)

On-Trail/Hiking Responsibilities

Cabin Leaders are needed for support for our Teacher Naturalists (TNs) while on trail. While students adventure around property, TNs are required to have at least one additional adult present at all times in their group. If you are on-trail/hiking with a group, your main role is to support the students during the hike. Here are a few ways to do this:

- Help keep the entire group together and safe while hiking.
- Lend a hand to kids who may need assistance.
- Help keep the students on-task/focused during lessons.
- Talk with the Teacher Naturalist about needs that may come up within the group.
- Have fun, participate, and engage with the exploration group. Please allow students to have their space to learn/socialize.

Meal Procedure

There will be responsibilities, both assigned and volunteer-based, throughout mealtimes to ensure the meal runs smoothly for all present.

1. Cabins typically do not sit together at meals. Everyone will be assigned a meal group, different from their cabin or exploration groups.
2. There must be an adult at each table. If two or more adults are at the same table, try to face the center of the dining hall and do not sit next to each other.
3. You are in charge at your table. Please enforce good table manners. Encourage the use of “please” and “thank you”, and other manners appropriate for creating a community of respect.
4. During announcements, help remind students to not talk to each other so that they can hear any announcements or instructions.

Cabin Leaders are vital to the success of a large meal setting!

Free Time/Transition Times

Students have an hour of free time every day. During this time, most camp staff will be getting ready for the rest of the day’s activities, and Cabin Leaders will be responsible for providing supervision. Students may use the time to take showers, relax in their own cabins, use our sports equipment at the courts, or hang out in the lodge. We ask that Cabin Leaders be present in key locations throughout this time. Each Cabin Leader will be assigned a location to supervise during this time by the Cabin Leader Coordinator. Please be sure to supervise your assigned area for the duration of free time to ensure adequate supervision for all students.

Transition times occur before and after meals as well as between activities. Cabin leaders are responsible for helping to supervise students as well as making sure they arrive at the next location on time.

Bed Time

Here are some ideas for activities designed to help kids process their day and wind down.

- Lead a Serendipity (resources provided)
- Read a Bedtime Story (Books available in the Main Lodge)
- Tell a Story Using Your Imagination/Memory
- Sing/Play a Song
- Facilitate a Quiet Sharing Activity
- Lead a Guided Meditation

CCCYO CAMP STANDARDS

The primary responsibility of a Cabin Leader is to provide a safe and respectful environment for their cabin and exploration groups. To do this effectively, you must role model the camp norms, and ensure that students also follow them. Please be aware that we have only one set of standards here that applies to students and adults alike, to set the tone of equity and fairness. These rules are based on the values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility. The following is a list of some of the CCCYO Camp Norms.

It is vitally important to the success of your week at CCCYO Camp that everyone feels COMFORTABLE and SAFE.

- Respect - Treat people and all living things with respect. (i.e. no cabin pranks, practical jokes.) Treat all camp property and personal belongings of others with respect. No graffiti.
- Be On Time!
- Model Active Listening: Follow the directions of your Teacher Naturalist, Classroom Teachers and staff. Use the quiet sign (power to the peaceful) as a visual clue to be silent.
- No Put-Downs - verbal or non-verbal.
- Use Appropriate Language. No swearing or offensive language.
- The following items are not permitted by campers while here at CCCYO Camp: Cell phones, Computers, electronics, watches, hair dryers, curling irons, hair spray or make-up.
- All cabin groups must stay together with their Cabin Leader with some exceptions that will be reviewed at orientation on Monday.
- Stay within the camp boundaries.
- Use the buddy system! No one should ever go anywhere alone.
- Leave all sticks, rocks, plants, and animals where you found them. No throwing anything. (Leave-It-Right Rule)
- Stay with your Teacher Naturalist on exploration hikes
- Leave No Trace! Turn off Lights and Heaters! Conserve water! Recycle!
- No horseplay, pillow fights, or roughhousing in/out of the cabins.
- Keep all food out of the cabins.
- No medications are allowed in the cabins, except Epi-pens and inhalers that have been checked-in with the staff.
- No visiting or entering other cabins.
- Be in bed and quiet by "lights out" time and remain in bed (except for emergencies) until 7AM.
- Close toed shoes at all times! Only exception is the showers and pool.

● CCCYO CAMP CABIN LEADER EXPECTATION CONTRACT

Please review; all Cabin Leaders must sign a copy of this document.

One of your most important responsibilities as Cabin Leader is to understand, role model, and ensure the CCCYO Camp standards are followed. We ask that you agree to these standards while you are at CCCYO Camp as a Cabin Leader. If you feel for any reason that you will be unable to adhere to these norms, CCCYO Camp may not be the place for you.

I understand that I will be serving in a capacity of great responsibility and will be entrusted with the care of students in my cabin. I will conduct myself in such a way that my personal behavior and appearance will serve as a model to all students.

- At all times, I will put the physical and emotional safety of the individuals in my cabin and exploration groups as my prime responsibility. I will know, follow, and enforce the CCCYO Camp standards.
- I acknowledge that the students in my charge are very impressionable and must be protected from inappropriate language, jokes, activities and stories.
- I understand that we are providing an “unplugged” experience for our students and I agree to keep all electronic devices completely out of sight for the entirety of my stay at CCCYO Camp.
- I accept the challenge of working as an assistant to my Teacher Naturalist. I will be conscientious of highlighting the natural world and impressing its importance upon all students whom I supervise and role model to.
- I understand that CCCYO Camp serves parochial, public, private and alternative schools, and that the curriculum changes according to the requirements and needs of each individual school. I agree to be present, to supervise and assist the students in their success at all program activities.
- I will encourage each student to be an active participant in all activities of the program. I will actively participate in program activities, to the best of my ability, as a model for the students to follow.
- If an undesirable situation or problem arises that is beyond my ability or responsibility to handle, I will immediately bring it to the attention of the Cabin Leader Coordinator, Teacher Naturalists, Site Director, and/or the School Teachers.
- I recognize that it is against camp policy to ever be alone with a minor. If this situation occurs I will find another person to be present or move the interaction to a place in plain view. I understand that this guiding principle is for my own safety and that of the student.
- I understand that I will not exchange contact information with campers. This includes: addresses, phone numbers, emails, social media, or any type of screen name.
- I agree not to possess or use alcohol or illegal drugs, or behave in any way to endanger the students' welfare or the reputation of CCCYO Camp, my own school, or myself. Failure to do so will result in immediate dismissal from the program.
- I understand that the CCCYO Camp program is to be free of usage of any tobacco products. I am not allowed to possess or use tobacco of any kind while on duty, volunteering at CCCYO Camp.
- I understand that any inappropriate behavior or deviation from the CCCYO Camp standards will result in an appropriate consequence, and possibly conclude in my dismissal from the program.
